knew it had to be done. Yet, the job is very hard, and is filled with lots of inter-personal conflicts with staff and faculty. I was glad to shed that role

Download Free The Getaway Car

while I was young enough to have time to do some deep explorations of my life. I believe my first step in this direction began with a newly formed

Sorrells. I
next credit
Carol Pearson
for opening up an entire new area to me. I got her first book, contacted her, and joined her seminar titled Journey Guides. I was introduced to Carl Jung anew and in a form I had not encountered in my earlier

studies.

Pearson's use of archetypes
was fascinating to me and I began to see how they worked in my life. By now I had begun to move out of the ego stage into the inter-mediate stage of the soul that later leads us to be archetype of the sage. I believe that my teaching improved in the latter years of my career, and I feel that I learned a great deal from my students. One of the first lessons I learned was to allow my

intuition to work for me.
My personality
tends toward the sensing
and thinking
type, rather than the intuitive and feeling type.
But, I learned
how to work against my type. About this time I first learned of the Meyers-Briggs Type Test at a leadership school run for Unitarians. Things seemed to be coming together for me.

The
